UP WITH PEOPLE

It happened just this morning, I was walking down the street, The milkman and the postman And policeman I did meet. There in ev'ry window, At ev'ry single door, I recognized people I'd never noticed before.

Up! Up with people!
You meet 'em wherever you go!
Up! Up with people!
They're the best kind of folks we know.
If more people were for people,
All people ev'rywhere,
There'd be a lot less people to worry about,
And a lot more people who care!

People from the southland,
And people from the north.
Like a mighty army
saw them coming forth.
Twas a great reunion
Befitting of a king!
Then I realized people
Were more im ortant than things.

Inside ev'rybody
There's some bad and there's some good,
But don't let anybody
Start attacking peoplehood.
Love them as they are,
But fight for them to be,
Great men and great women,
As God meant them to be.

For three days we enthusiastically rang countless doorbells selling fudge for our great Senior Class. Each night we celebrated the successes of the day with a party. On the final day we invaded Roland's for a mass celebration. Our hard work was rewarded with the sale of 5,148 lbs., more than any previous class had sold.

Big Brothers

K. English, T. Georgeopoulos, R. Mahegan, J. Guttel, J. Reid, D. Murachver

For the first time, boys of Winthrop High School participated in a Big Brother Program. The boys were selected by the guidance department to build relationships with "little brothers" ranging in age from six to eleven. Moments between the "brothers" were spent at football and basketball games, the Ice Capades, the New England Boat Show or merely tossing rocks into the ocean. This year has hopefully been the beginning of a continuing BB program in Winthrop.

Early Bird Tutors

While most of us were warm in bed, these kids were trudging to the Jr. High to help future W.H.S.'ers pass math, English, French and History.

The theatre.

A wonderland. Another opportunity.
Factual, fictional, no matter.

A play is for real.

Hours, days, weeks of work
culminate the honor of this Society.

Jumbled ideas construct to produce a concept we've known but couldn't express.

Yet there is work between beginning and end we never see.

The sorting out, the mental clash, the words that just won't come.

This is Purple Antelope.

Days of mud and heat, rain and cold, for the intercepted pass, and the recovered fumble;

CAPTAIN HUCKY LARSEN

The third year of competition has revealed the strength of hockey as a sport and a spirit.

Flashing blades, flying pucks, passing skills and footwork combine to form a balance of teamwork.

A turning point—Beverly: 2-2 tie the newly psyched Vikings come into their own as Tommy kicks and flails at the oncoming puck.

And the cheerleaders and crowd resound with enthusiasm.

Minutes and seconds stretching into weeks of struggle for control,
form,
precision
and Number One.
All that matters is the move,
and every minute and second
melts into the strive for perfection.
The taut muscles,
the hidden tears of frustration,
the tense hush of the crowd,
Explode into a thousand measured sighs
as the judges announce,
Winthrop, Number One.

Boys with little recognition but a lot of pride become the boys who are able to hold a block just that second longer, fight an opponent with that last ounce of strength, and just maybe make the difference between victory and defeat.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
